AN IMPORTANT GATHERING AT SARATOGA RUN OF THE ATLANTIC TACHT CLUB TO NEXT WEEK-WHAT THE ASSOCIA-TION HAS DONE.

The indications are that the fourth annual convention of the New-York State Bankers' Association, which opens at Saratoga Springs on Thursday of next week, July 15, will be the most important meeting in the history of the ascociation. In numbers, enthusiasm and in the magnitude of the banking interests of the State, the New-York association holds first rank. It has not only done valuable educational work in finance and bank-ing, but has secured the adoption of practical and by the legitimate use of its power has provented the passage of unwise State legislation.

The association stands for improved banking nethods, and is a live and effective organization. Its membership is made up of men of influence and intelligence, whose deliberations cannot fail to exert a powerful influence for good on banking nterests generally. It is harmonious, and a spirit of cordial co-operation has been manifested from the first. By wise provision of the constitution no president nor vice-president is allowed to be his own sucnor received the management of the association has always been democratic; at the last convention a resolution was passed providing that each group called on in order to present names to be voted on for the several offices. This and other liberal and progressive ideas make the convention entirely free and popular. For the better realization of the aims of the association the membership is divided into nine groups, as nearly as possible by geographical divisions. Group I embraces seven countles, with Buffalo as the central point; Group II, six countles, with Rochester as the central point; Group III, seven Rocester and the group meetings are usually counties, and the group meetings are usually held at Elmira or Binghamton; Group IV includes six counties, and the group meetings are usually eld at Syracuse; Group V includes nine countie and Utica is its most central point; Group VI ides twelve counties, and meetings are usually und Utien is its most central point; Group VI includes twelve counties, and meetings are usually held at Albany or Troy; Group VII is composed of seven counties along the Hudson River, with the county of Westchester, and its meetings are sell with held in New-York City or Poughkeepsie; Group VIII embraces Long Island, and the group meetings are held in Brooklyn; Group IX includes the city of New-York and Staten Island.

According to the last report there are 52 banks in the several groups eligible to membership, and of this number 41 are members. The capital and surplus of all the banks in the groups amount to over $190,000,000. The association was organized and held its first convention at Saratoga Springs in August. 1843.

The first president of the association was William C. Cornwell, of Buffalo, representing the extreme Western part of the State; the second president was James G. Cannon, representing the city of New-York, and the present head of the association. Seymour Dexter, of Emira, represents the central part of the State; the present vice-president being ex-Senator Griswold, of Brooklyn. It is quite probable that the president to be selected from one of the more active groups other than those already honored by the office. If this rule is observed the president will, in all probability, be selected either from Group VII, the Albany group, or the Syracuse group. It is stated that Group VII will present the name of Bradford Rhodes, the efficient chairman of that group, for the office of president at the Saratoga meeting. He has, from its inception, taken an active interest in the work of the association and is admirably fitted for the position. Mr. Rhodes is president of the Mamaroneck Bank, and served three terms as member of the Assembly, being chairman of the Committee on Banks at each session.

Another plan is on foot for an "Independent theatre." This term usually means a scheme for the production of the works of Hendrik Ibsen, which the general public, and therefore the general theatrical manager, will have none of. If the present plan is carried out, a number of matinee performances will be given in New-York and a few of the other large cities. The first play is few of the other large cities. The hold is all kely to be Ibsen's "John Gabriel Borkman," and if anything interferes with the expected securing of some new plays by other authors there will be the rest of the Ibsen repertory to fall back

The opening of the Empire Theatre will be on September 1, and the play "Secret Service."

THE CURRENCY COMMISSION.

LET THE SECRETARY DO THE WORK

From The Hartford Courant. It would be just as easy for Secretary Gage to constitute himself that Commission, for him to consult the authorities, and for a suitable bill to be prepared in that way to be presented to the Congress in December. If the Commission is given up. to not give up the belief that something will be done.

COMMISSIONS ACCOMPLISH NOTHING.

From The Albany Journal. Currency reform is not to be obtained through the work of commissions. Let us get the business of the country into a healthy condition and the currency will take care of itself. It has done so before and can do it again.

THE DANGER OF A HOSTILE CONGRESS. From The Baltimore American.

A Congress hostile to a certain currency policy is not likely to create a commission favorable to that policy—in fact, it is preposterous to suppose that it will. The only result, therefore, of opening the subject would be to precipitate a fierce financial controversy that would unsettle the public mind and disastrously affect the business of the country. This would certainly be unwise.

"TOO LATE," THE MUGWUMP WAIL. From The Boston Herald.

Everybody knows that at this late stage of the session there is not the remotest chance of obtaining authority for the appointment of a currency commission. If the President had any real desire for such action he would have brought the subject to the notice of Congress long ago. It is, sadly, too late to correct that omission now. FAIRLY SATISFACTORY.

From The Philadelphia Press. We are for some revision of the currency system, but, whatever its faults, it is still true that all our currency is securely fastened to the gold standard, and that is the cardinal necessity.

THE STATE BANKERS' MEETING. THE COLONIA IN THE LEAD, A BRYANITE FOR CHIEF JUDGE. THE REV. DR. S. B. HALLIDAY DEAD.

NEW-LONDON.

PRIZES WON BY THE COLONIA, THE SACREM, THE SYCE, THE GAVIOTA, THE MIDGLON AND

THE ARISTA-MAKEUP OF THE PLEET. New-Lendon, Conn., July & (Special) .- In spite of the intertainments given by the Bridgeport Yacht Club and by Thomas L. Watson, the fleet captain of the flub, the men of the Atlantic Yacht Club cruising fleet were able to appear on deck pretty early this morning. The brass "barker" on Com-modore Frederick T. Adams's Sachem could wake the dead, and had no sympathy with sluggards.

Colors were made from the flagship promptly at the usual hour, and soon afterward the blue peter was run up on the Sachem to signal: "Prepare to get under way." About 8 o'clock the starting gun sounded, and then that part of the fleet which was under canvas passed out into the Sound. The hospitable Bridgeport Yacht Club was saluted with all due ceremony on the departure of the sailing fleet. There was an able-bodied breeze out of the west, and at the start every promise of a speedy passage to New-London.

Clarence A. Postley, commodore of the Larchmont Yacht Club, has offered a special cup for schooners and a special cup for schooners and a special cup for sloops, to be taken by the yacht in each of these classes which shall win the largest number of races from port to port on this cruise. The Syce, the Eclipse and the Gaviota give double time allowance to the other single-masted vessels, while Mr. Postley's schooner, the Colonia, allows the same to the Sachem and the Priscilla. Owing to Mr. Maxwell being detained by business in New-York, his fast schooner, the Emerald, did not enter in to-day's contest, as her owner always sails her in her races. Owing to the splendid drifting powers shown by the new flyer, the Syce, during the contest of yesterday, in which she led the fleet from start to finish, it is thought that F. M. Hoyt stands a fairly good chance for the Postley sloop cup. Newbury D. Lawton did not take down his newly purchased thirty-footer, the Raccoon, his duties as one of the Regatta Committee preventing his doing so. According to the report of the Regatta Com-

Langley; the Maristia, Harrison B. Moore; the Alecco, W. H. Hamilton; the Now Then, Edgar F. Luckenback; the Victory, Frank L. Camp. Schooners—The Sachem, Vice-Commodore F. T. Adams; the Colonia, C. A. Postley; the Emerald, J. Rogers Maxwell; the Priscilla, W. J. Goulding; the Nirvana, G. G. Tyson.

Tawls—The Huron, E. S. Hatch; the Sultan, John H. Cromwell
Sloops and cutters—The Awa, A. De Witt Cochrane; the Syce, F. M. Hoyt; the Eurybia, Charles Yrver; the Eidolon, James Wier, Jr.; the Sistae, John Rhodes; the Eclipse, L. J. Callanan; the Gaviota, Colonel David E. Austen; the Akista, George Hill; the Penelope, I. V. Ketchum; Vorant II, G. G. Tyson; the Volante, S. L. Sweet; the Tique, H. A. Harrison; the Laurel, Richard Fease; the Volusia, J. J. Allen.

In a whole-sail breeze from the southwest, the schooner Colonia the herald of the fleet, crossed the finish line off Sarah's Ledge at 2.18 this afternoon, the winner in her class. Shortly afterward the rest of the fleet appeared under full canvas and dropped anchor in sight of the crowds at Pequot and East Point. The run from Riverside was a successful one, and the time made satisfactory to the yachtsme?, the average being a little over seven hours. The winners in the six classes were as follows:

The Colonia won Sail-over prize for schooners in acing trim and the Postley Cup for schooners, in winning two runs of the cruise with double time illowance to other schooners. allowance to other schooners.

The Sachem won the prize for schooners in cruising trim for the day's run.

The Syce won the Sail-over prize for sloops in racing trim.

The Gaviota wan the prize for the day's run for sloops of Class 5 in cruising trim.

The Eldolon won the prize for the day's run for sloops in Class 5 in cruising trim and one leg on the cruise prize for sloops.

The Akista on double time allowance won the day's run for sloops and one leg on the Postley prize.

To-morrow the yachtsmen will be entertained at the Fort Griswold House.

HINTING AT ANOTHER YACHT RACE. AN INTERESTING INTERNATIONAL SUGGESTION IN "THE PALL MALL GAZETTE."

London, July 9 .- "The Pall Mall Gazette" says this afternoon: "When British and American bat-tle-ships exchange salutes as the Medea and Brooklyn did on July i, many yachtsmen opine that the time has arrived when the good-feeling displayed on the two sides of the Atlantic as applied to the arts of war might as we'll be manifested in respect to the pursuits of peace, particularly in the way of pleasure craft racing for the laudable object of supremacy in marine sport. The fact, too, that the Philadelphians are meeting English players in our

WILLIAM GILLETTE SERIOUSLY ILL.

HIS HEALTH BREAKS DOWN IN LONDON ON AC-COUNT OF OVERWORK.

London, July 9 .- William Gillette, the American playwright and actor, has been dangerously ill for more than a week and been confined to his bed most of the time. He will be compelled to ratire from the stage for the present and to relinquish play-writing indefinitely. As soon as he is able to be moved he will return to the United States. His health is very much broken.

Mr. Gillette was taken ill during the matinee performance on Wednesday of last week, but he kept on working for a while until forced to confine himself to his room and then to his bed, under the care of physicians and nurses. His doctor says that his condition is somewhat improved, as com-pared with what it was at the beginning of this week, but he is still a very sick man. The primary trouble is malarial fever, but a return of the old lung trouble is feared. The patient's debility is lung trouble is feared. The patient's debility is directly traceable to overwork, for, in addition to eight appearances weekly he has been closely engaged on a new play.

The fact of Mr. Gillette's breakdown has been kept from the public. M. L. Alsop, his understudy, has taken his part in "Secret Service," although Mr. dillette's name has been retained on the paybills. The collaise seriously interferes with Charles Frohman's pians in London, as Mr. Gillette was an important factor in the undertaking. Mr. Frohman's intention had been to produce "Too Much Johnson" after the run of "Secret Service." It now looks as 'f these arrangments would have to undergo radical modifications.

BRILLIANT FIREWORKS AT MANHATTAN. The fireworks display this evening at Manhattan will be on the same elaborate scale which char-acterized the exhibition on the eve of the Fourth and the night following it. It will, in fact, be a double programme, as extensive in every way as the two referred to, which drew thousands to Pain's Open referred to, which drew thousands to Pain's Open Air Theatre at the Beach. The war spectacle will also be given notwithstending the length of the fireworks bill. With good weather and clear skies a great pyrotechnic exhibition, one as brilliant as any yet seen at Manhattan, may be expected.

A GIFT TO GEORGE W. WANMAKER. George W. Wanmaker, president of the Republican Club of the XVth Assembly District, received last night a handsome diamond ring as a token of the esteem in which he is held by his brethren in the esteem in which he is held by his brethren in the district. The place chosen for the reception and presentation was McBride's American Hotel, at No. 285 West Forty-first-st., where Lemuel E. Quigg, president of the Republican County Com-mittee, delivered the presentation address. Mr. Wanmaker responded gracefully. Among those present were Congressman Shannon, Postmaster Van Cott, ex-Police Commissioner Murray and City Magistrate Flammer.

SUDDEN DEATH OF AN OLD-TIME LAWYER. Stephen Stokes, sixty years old, was found dead n bed yesterday afternoon at No. 108 West Sixty third-st. Death was doubtless caused by heart disthird-st. Death was doubless caused by heart dis-ease. Thirty years ago Stokes had a good law practice, and was a familiar figure about the courts. In recent years he has not practised, and during the last year he had occupied a furnished room in the house where he died. He is not known to have had any relatives in the city, his only brother living somewhere in the West.

FREE-SILVER MEN IN THIS STATE INSIST

ON HAVING THEIR WAY. There seems to be no longer any question that the Democratic State Committee will be driven to reamrm the Chicago and Buffalo platforms of last year or else force a bolt to be organized by the free silverites. In the latter event a free-silver Democratic State Convention is more than probable, although David B. Hill, Elliot Danforth, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, and Hill's alleged majority in that body will labor to prevent an open revolt.

Fresh developments, it is promised, will follow a meeting of representatives of the Bimetallic League held at the Hotel Gerlach last Thursday evening. Besides delegates from that body the Loyal Democratic League of Brooklyn was represented to the control of the cont sented, and there was also in attendance a number of Democrats high in the party's councils in the interior of the State. The substance of the decision at which the meeting arrived was that the Democrear-le-Populist State Committee must abandon Hill's neutral position, declare for free silver and nominate an avowed Bryanite for Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals if *rouble was to be avoided. Ex-Congressman H. H. Rockwell, who was per-manent chairman of the Buffalo Convention; F. P. manent chairman of the Bunaio Convention, F.
Hulette, of Wyoming County; Charles A. Burke, of Franklin County; J. W. Cutler, of Niagara County;
T. F. Wilkinson, who ran on the Bryanite ticket for Congress last year in the Albany district; H. B. Witherstine, of Herkimer; H. W. Cornell, of Tompkins; O. L. Snyder, of Eric County; A. B. Wales, of Broome; John McCarthy, of Onondaga, and other politicians long identified with the Demo-

Burke and Cutler are chairmen of the present Democratic committees of their respective countles.

A committee of twenty-five, of which most of the men mentioned are members, was appointed, with power to enlarge its membership, for the purpose of working up a sentiment all over the State to keep the State Committee, which will this year nominate the candidate for Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, in line with Bryanism. The meeting took the ground that the State Committee was powerless to do anything else, and that any attempt on its part to modify the Democratic-Populist platforms of last year must result in its cratic State machine were there. Messrs. Hulette,

The special committee referred to prepared circular letters to be sent to all the Democratic county committees, silver clubs and other organizations in the State. It contains resolutions, which these bodies are asked to adopt, in which it is set forth that the Democrats of the State of New-York having thoroughly indorsed the principles of the Chicago platform of 1896, and believing that the issues therein raised should be kept con-stantly before the people, it is resolved (by the convention, committee, club, primary or organiza-tion taking action) "that we are in full and hearty accord with the sentiments expressed in the Demo-cratic State and National platforms of 1896, and that we strenuously urge the State Committee to that we strenuously urge the State Committee to reaffirm these platforms, and earnestly request said committee to nominate a candidate for Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals who fully indorses these principles and who heartily supported the candidates nominated thereon in 186."

Chairman Danforth of the State Committee, when seen in this city yesterday, said that the persons who took part in the Gerach conference were doubtless well-meaning Democrats, but he intimated that they had allowed their zeal for free silver to outrus their discretion. "The sentiment of the Democracy of the State." he said, "is undoubtedly favorable to the principles avowed by the Chicago Convention, and of this fact the State Committee will not fail to take notice. Exactly what are the nowers of the committee under the resolutions of the Buffalo convention, empowering it to nominate a Chief Judge this year, I am not now able to say, but I have sent for a verified copy of the resolution in the minutes of the State Convention in the hands of the convention's sectory. When I am in receipt of the wording of that resolution I shall be better prepared to say just what the State Committee can do or should leave undone."

just what the State Committee can do or spould leave undone."

Like the rest of Mr. Hill's machinists, Mr. Danforth has no sympathy with the agitators of the Bimetallic League, and would like to put them far in the rear in this year's campaign.

The United Democracy of the Greater New-York, organized by representatives of various free-silver and Bryantize leagues, have opened a head-quarters at No. 42 East Twenty-third-st., just across the way from the Citizens Union headquarters.

DISSATISFACTION IN THE XXXIIID.

Delegates from seven Republican organizations of the XXXIIId Assembly District met at the hall at One-hundred-and-sixteenth-st, and Second-ave. last night. There was only one Republican club in the district that did not participate, and that was the Consolidated Republican Club. The purpose of the meeting was to protest against Frank Raymond. who has been chosen as leader of the district. Strong speeches were made in which Lemuel E was charged with doing things relative to the reorganization of election districts which

MR. PLATT BACK FROM WASHINGTON.

Senator Platt came on from Washington yesterday, and last evening went to the Oriental Hotel at Manhattan Beach, where he met President Quigg of the Republican County Committee, Frederick S. Gibbs and other local politicians. After Mr. Platt's arrival, Mr. Quigg said that the Senator would not return to Washington during the present session, unless this was made necessary by reasons of the greatest importance. Mr. Platt, it was said, would remain in New-York and devote his attention to preparations for the impending

According to reports in circulation at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, Senator Platt will spend the next Avenue Hotel, Senator Platt will spend the next few days in straightening out the troubles which have come to the surface in connection with the Federal offices. Secretary Bliss of the Interior Department was expected home to-day from Washington, and it was stated that Mr. Bliss has arranged to meet Mr. Platt, Jacob Worth and others at the Oriental to-day, to assist in smoothing out the aleged wrinkles.

The selection of Robert A. Sharkey for Postmaster of Brooklyn and Andrew Jacobs for Naval Officer of the Port, said to have been made by the President, does not seem to be satisfactory to Mr. Platt's friends. An effort toward a new disposition of the remaining Federal places is to be made, and an interesting caucus over these and other matters is expected to-day and to-morrow.

AN INVENTOR FOUND DEAD IN HIS ROOM. Martin Gysi, a native of Switzerland, sixty ears old, an inventor of some slik-weaving machinery, was found dead in his room yesterday at No. 448 West Forty-fifth-st. It is thought that the man died on Wednesday, and that he committed suicide by taking carbolic acid.

Mrs Glockney, the proprietor of the house, which made up of furnished rooms, said she last saw Mr. Gysl on Wednesday. When he did not appear on Thursday or Friday she had a man gain en on Inursually or Friday she had a man gain en-trance to his room. He found Gyst on the bed dead, and it was plain that death had occurred a long time before, as decomposition was already marked. At first it was thought that heart dis-ease was the cause of death, but later an empty carbolle acid bottle was found.

TOM OCHILTREE'S DOUBLE.

AND HOW HE CAME NEAR UNDOING HIM.

From The Chicago Times-Herald.

Prom The Chicago Times-Herald.

Apropos of the many reminiscences of Coionel Tom Ochiltree which are now going the rounds of the press, a friend of the famous Texan tells me a story which well illustrates the readiness with which he invariably lights on his feet, no matter how he may be "thrown in the air."

President Grant made Ochiltree a marshal for a certain district in Texas. The colonel, however, did not spend much of his time at home, but went skylarking about the country wherever his fancy led him. This caused so many complaints to be filed against him that at last the President sent for him to come to Washington.

While waiting in the White House reception-room for his turn to see the President, Ochiltree began reading a report of the preceding day's races at Saratoga, and was surprised to see that a horse bearing his own name. "Tom Ochiltree," had carried off second money. When he faced President Grant the latter said he was serry to learn that an appointee of his should be in any way derelict in his duty.

pointee of his should be in any way derelict in his duty.

"The fact is, Tom, I can hardly pick up a paper that I don't run across your name," said he, "and you seem to be about everywhere except in Texas, "General," said the Texan, with a smile as radiant as a California sunset, "if you'll read the papers to-day you'll find that I carried off second money at Saratoga yesterday, and am said to be 'in fine form and faster than ever.' See here."

And he showed the sporting page of the paper in his pocket. And no his pocket.

"Am I to blame," he said, "if, while I am faithfully attending to my duties at home, some confounded racchorse is disgracing my name about

HENRY WARD BEECHER'S OLD ASSISTANT

EXPIRES AT ORANGE, N. J. Orange, July 9 (Special).—The Rev. Dr. Samuel B. Halliday, once assistant pastor of Plymouth Church, in Brooklyn, who was stricken with apo-plexy at the home of Phineas P. Staunton, No. 25 Summer-st., Orange, on Monday morning, died this afternoon at 4:15 o'clock. He had been almost completely unconscious since the stroke, and the nearest approach to consciousness had been a recognition of his daughters by an almost imperceptible grasp of the hand. He had been constantly attended by Dr. W. A. Wakeley, who had done everything possible to relieve the aged sufferer. Mr. Halliday's son, Frank Halliday, and two daughters were with him at the end.

There will be no funeral in Orange. The services will be held at the house, No. 77 Hicks-st., Brooklyn, and will be only for the immediate relatives and friends. They will be conducted by the Rev. Howard S. Bliss, of Upper Montclair, who was associate pastor of Plymouth Church after Mr. Beecher's death. After the services the house will be opened to friends to view the body.

In the city of Brooklyn there was hardly a minister better known or more generally loved than the Rev. Dr. Halliday. On account of his life-long friendship for Henry Ward Beecher, and the fact that he was Mr. Beecher's assistant in Plymouth for a long term of years, his name was linked with that of Beecher and Plymouth Church, so that where one went all went. He was remem-bered, also, as a missionary in the Five Points House of Industry in New-York, where he spent several years of hard and efficient work.

Samuel E. Halliday was born on June 5, 1812, in Morristown, N. J. His ancestors on his mother's side were descendants of John Alden and Priscilla the hero and heroine of Longfellow's poem. In 1825 his father's family moved to New-York City, where, after studying for a short time, young Halliday entered a grocery store. At this time he became interested in religious affairs and offered his services as a volunteer in city missionary work, without pay. He began to prepare for the ministry at Bloomfield Academy, but had trouble with his eyes and was obliged to abandon his studies for a short time. He resumed city mission work while in this work, and established a library on the Fulton, the first steamboat ever built in this country. His ill health compelled him to give up his religious duties and he went into secular employment, temporarily. He became superintendent of the Five Points House of Industry and was ordained and installed as paster of a Congregational church in Lodi, Bergen County, N. J. Soon afterward he resigned the superintendency of the House of Industry and became Mr. Beecher's associate in Plymouth Church. When Mr. Beecher died he established the Beecher Memorial Church in East New-York, which, through his efforts, paid all its debts and became a prosperous society, While associated with Plymouth Church he at tended more than two thousand funerals. He was intimately associated with Mr. Beecher, and was always ready to tell interesting stories about Plymouth's pastor. Only a short time ago he spoke of Mr. Beecher in a newspaper article in these

The military and contains to do the was strong all over. He was strong in his dislikes. He was kind in his dislikes, with an unbounded generosity and liberality, and one of the most forgiving of men. Numberless incidents of this grandeur of character could be given. His generosity was not confined to what are called good men, but to every one. He would not stop to insist even that a man should be worthy. Giving largely himself, his congregation would respond in the same manner. Should be worthy. For many years his memory seemed to be an utter failure. He could place no reliance upon it, and if there was anything important for him to remember he would say: 'Go to Halliday. He is my memory, and whatever he says to do that will I do.'"

It was always said of Dr. Halliday that one of his hobbles was to imitate Mr. Beecher in dress and manner. While Mr. Beecher's assistant he apparently lived for no other purpose than to be an efficient co-worker with Mr. Beecher.

In this connection it is interesting to recall a statement which he made on his eighty-fifth birth-day, in answer to the question, "Is life worth living?" His reply was:

"Life as a whole has been a source of happiness to me. Of course, trials have failen across my pathway. I have buried myself again and again with my friends. I buried two brothers, the pride of my life and affections. The death of my wife and children were sore afflictions. I don't want to live my life over again, but it has been a happy life, a beautiful life, and I am sure that I could not suggest any conceivable plan over that which has been laid out for me and which I have tried to follow in keeping with the purpose of my Maker."

David H. Roberts, who had been prominent as a glass manufacturer and was in business at No. 415 West Broadway, died on Thursday at his home. No. 72 West Ninety-fourth-st. He was born in this city forty-seven years ago. In 1895 business troubles unsettled his mind and he took a sudden trip abroad on the Lucania. His wife followed him to the boat, and, being unable to persuade him to leave it, salled with him. In Liverpool he was placed in an asylum, but he afterward recovered his reason. He leaves a wife and two children.

MRS. JULIA MAFFITT.

St. Louis July 2.—Mrs. Julia Maffitt, a pioneer of St. Louis and the richest woman in the city, is dead at her home, aged eighty-one. Mrs. Maffitt's grandfather, Pierre Chouteau, sr., was one of the original members of the American Fur Company, and from 1789 to 1804 passed his time in the Western woods trading with the Indians. His company prospered so rapidly from his perilous work that he rettred wealthy in 1894, and accepted an ap-pointment from President Jefferson as the agent for all Indians west of the Mississippi River. The Chouteau family was the most prominent of the early French settlers in Missouri.

CONSUL WILLIS E. BOKER. Washington July 9.-Minister Buchanan has

Mrs. Boker has left the details of the funeral to her son, who is attached to the consulate at Buenos Ayres. Mr. Boker was appointed Consul in 1890. He came from Illinois. It i. understood that he was injured in a wreck in the Agentine Republic. NO CELEBRATION IN HAWAII.

THE ANNEXATION LEADERS FAILED TO GET THE NEWS THEY HOPED FOR. San Francisco, July 9.—The steamer City of Pek ing, just arrived, was a day behind her regulaing. Just arrived, was a day behind her regular time. Captain Smith says that she was detained at Honolulu on a request from the officers of the Hawaliar Government, who asked that the steamer remain in the harbor there until the arrival from San Francisco of the Mariposa, on which the Hawalians hoped to hear that the annexation treaty had been ratified by the United States Senate and they could call themselves Americans.

States Senate and they could can americans.

The leaders of the annexation party had purchased all the firecrackers on the islands in anticipation of news favorable to their way of managing the islands, and were preparing for a big celebration; but news to suit them did not come and the celebration was declared off. The Hawalians hoped by holding the City of Peking to be able to send congratulatory messages to the mainland.

THE ANNEXATION TREATY DISCUSSED. NO ACTION TAKEN BY THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE.

Washington, July 9.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations made two efforts to-day to secure a full meeting for the purpose of taking up and, if possible, disposing of the Hawalian annexation treaty, but failed. No quorum was secured at the forenoon session, and there was not a full attendance at the afternoon meeting. The treaty was dis-cussed at some length at the latter meeting, and some of its strongest advocates suggested the ad-visability of early action. This suggestion was an-tagonized, however, by the opponents of ratifica-tion, and by at lenst one of the supporters of an-nexation, on the ground that the matter was too important for immediate action. The committee adjourned until Wednesday.

JAPAN'S "VITAL INTEREST." HAWAHANS REFUSE TO ADMIT THAT IT

San Francisco, July 9.-Advices by the steamer City of Peking, just arrived from the Orient, are to this effect: The Japanese "Times" of recent date devotes a long article to a discussion of the annexation situs tion, over which the entire Japanese press is greatly wrought up. The premise of the argument in this paper, as represented by the Hawaiian "Star," is that Japan has no territorial interest in the waiian Islands. Speaking of the signing of the annexation treaty, it says: "Whatever may have annexation treaty, it says: "Whatever may have been the cause, it is to be deeply regretted that the step has been taken without consulting the views of Japan, which is, next to America, most vitally interested in the status of the Hawaiian Islands."

Islands."

This the Hawaiian "Star" considers as "arrogance with a vengeance," and it says: "We have en:ployed Japanese as laborers, but that does not give Japan any 'vital interest' in the islands. This is a country of Anglo-Saxon civilization, not of Asiatic. Its laws, its religion, its tone of thought are Anglo-Saxon. Its affinities are with the United States, and one fails to see what 'vital interest' Japan has here."

THE OREGON NOT GOING TO HAWAII. NEEDLESS POTHER ABOUT THE ORDERS SENT TO CAPTAIN BARKER.

Seattle, Wash. July 9.-The fact that diplomatic relations between Japan and the United States are strained may be responsible for the sudden orders received by Captain Barker of the battle-ship Ore-gon. Captain Barker has just returned from Port-land, and it was expected that he would remain here several days. Last evening, however, the order was given for the ship to make ready for sea, der was given for the ship to make ready for sea, and she left port to-day. The captain said that he was going to Port Angeles, where he would take on 400 tons of coal, and that if he were going to Honolulu he would take double that quantity. When asked the direct question if he was going to Honolulu, he said:
"You cannot get a Honolulu scare out of me. I have been ordered to coal and inspect the Concord at Port Angeles. We sail to-day. That's all I know."

washington, July 3.—The sailing of the Ore on having been construed in some quarters into a movement toward Hawaii, it is stated at the Na we bepartment that there is not the slightest intention of sending the ship there. She is bound for San Francisco, and has stayed at Seattle, where she went solely to help out in the Fourth of July celebration, longer than was intended by the Department.

FEDERICO ALFONSO CAPTURED.

THE INSURGENT CUBAN LEADER TAKEN, WITH HIS WIFE AND FIVE SONS.

Havana, July 9.-It is officially unnounced that the Spanish forces have captured, in the mountains of Bejaramo, Province of Pinar del Rio, to-day the well-known insurgent leader, Federico Alfonso, his wife and five sons.

Advices from Cienfuegos, Province of Santa Clara, say that the insurgent forces under Generals Pancho, Carrillo, Rigo and others, which have been trying to advance toward the Provinces of Matanzas and Havana, have been engaged by the

and El Baga.

Captain-General Weyler has given a reward of $100 to the man who gave the notice to the authorities which enabled them to seize the insurgent depot of arms, ammunition, etc., as well as the documents of the Barcelona expedition found at Seborucal.

The military and civil governors have ordered the police to search the freight on trains bound to towns in the interior of the island. The authorities have found in the railroad station at Cristina 300 pack-ages, many of them containing medicines. Eight hundred packages were found on three trains at the station of Villanueva, on the Matanzas road. They were all confiscated on the ground that the owners of the packages had not compiled with the Captain-General's decree of January I.

Colonel Albergorti, with the Arapies Battallon, engaged and dispersed the insurgents in the hills of the Yaguajay District, near Remedios. The insurgents sustained severe losses, among them five solders killed and twenty-seven wounded. The solders killed and twenty-seven wounded. The skirmishing continued all day, and many crops in the vicinity were destroyed. The Spanish column finally encamped in the insurgents' positions. During another engagement in the same district the insurgents lost ten killed and had many wounded. The Spanish troops continue to pursue the insurgents lost ten killed and had many wounded. The

SAYS HE KILLED HIS PATHER.

THE POLICE THINK THIS YOUNG MAN IS CRAST A young Frenchman who is believed to be crass walked into the City Hall station late yesterday afternoon, and told the sergeant at the desk that he had killed his father.
